

Duty of Candour Annual Report

Every healthcare professional must be open and honest with patients when something that goes wrong with their treatment or care causes, or has the potential to cause, harm or distress. Services must tell the patient, apologise, offer appropriate remedy or support and fully explain the effects to the patient.

As part of our responsibilities, we must produce an annual report to provide a summary of the number of times we have triggered duty of Candour within our service.

Name & address of service:	Munizco Ltd T/A the Purple House Clinic
Date of report:	9/5/24
How have you made sure that you (and your staff) understand your responsibilities relating to the duty of candour and have systems in place to respond effectively? How have you done this?	Staff have been asked to read the duty of candour policy and ask any questions they have with regard to this policy.
Do you have a Duty of Candour Policy or written duty of candour procedure?	YES

Did the responsible person for triggering duty of candour appropriately follow the procedure? If not, did this result in any under or over reporting of duty of candour?	N/A
What lessons did you learn?	N/A
What learning & improvements have been put in place as a result?	N/A
Did this result in a change / update to your duty of candour policy / procedure?	N/A
How did you share lessons learned and who with?	N/A
Could any further improvements be made?	N/A
What systems do you have in place to support staff to provide an apology in a person-centred way and how do you support staff to enable them to do this?	Should any incidents occur in the future, we have a supportive line of management (including clinical psychology) to ensure staff are supported to carefully consider the most appropriate form of any apologies required. We have clear processes for incident reporting and procedure outlined in the duty of candour policy which would form the basis of any responses.
What support do you have available for people involved in invoking the procedure and those who might be affected?	As above we have a supportive line of management to guide support and a clear guide on the procedure contained within the duty of candour policy.
Please note anything else that you feel may be applicable to report.	N/A
